

Canada-China Relations: Time for a New Paradigm?

How stable is China's economy?

Where is it headed?

What should Canada's approach be in dealing with China?

How has a soft approach toward Chinese human rights affected the people living under its repressive regime?

How does all of this affect us?

Canada-China Relations: Time for a New Paradigm?

will focus on better understanding the China we are dealing with - including the ruling Chinese Communist Party (CCP). It will also look at where the country is headed and how Canadians can be prepared.

This is the third China forum hosted by the China Research Association at the University of Toronto. Past speakers include: former Deputy Prime Minister Sheila Copps, and MP Stockwell Day, the current Minister of Public Safety.

Location:

Lash Miller Building
80 St. George St., Rm. LM159

Schedule:

Friday, May 26, 2006
English Session: 1 pm - 5 pm
Chinese Session: 7 pm - 10 pm

Contact: 416-880-4752
cra@utsc.utoronto.ca

Invited Speakers:

The Honourable Jim Peterson
MP, former Minister of International Trade

Ezat Mossallanejad, Ph.D.,
Policy Analyst at the Canadian Centre for Victims of Torture

Dr. Wenyi Wang, MD, Ph.D.,
Editor-in-chief, Medical Life
Journal, and newsmaker who interrupted Chinese leader Hu
Jintao's speech at the White House on April 20.