To complete your degree at UTSC, you must complete both the degree and program requirements. Degree Explorer is an interactive online tool to help you track your progress and map out your future courses for completing your degree. To avoid delaying your graduation and taking unnecessary courses, check your progress regularly. For a demonstration on how to track your progress, first watch the Degree & Program planning module (uoft.me/degreeplanning).

Complete the following 3 steps and use the tools below to make informed decisions about your academic plans.

1. Check which Program requirements are complete, incomplete, and pending on Degree Explorer.
2. Check which Degree requirements are complete, incomplete, and pending on Degree Explorer.
3. Map out future courses required to complete your degree on Degree Explorer Planner.

Planning Tools

- Degree Explorer: www.rosi.utoronto.ca/degree_explorer.php
  This tool tracks your progress toward graduation. You can confirm your degree and program requirements that are complete and incomplete under the “Current Status” section.

- Degree Explorer Planner: www.rosi.utoronto.ca/degree_explorer.php
  Click on the “Planner” to access the interactive feature, which allows you to see the impact of adding hypothetical future courses or dropping current courses towards your degree and program completion. You can add courses to check for pre-requisites, co-requisites, and exclusions. Assess hypothetical programs you may want to complete.

- Future Course Offering: www.utsc.utoronto.ca/registrar/future-course-offerings
  Check the list of courses (tentative) for the next academic year to help plan your courses.

- Course finder: www.rosi.utoronto.ca/course_finder.php
  Look for courses for your breadth requirement and search through courses offered at all 3 campuses.

- UTSC Academic Calendar: utsc.calendar.utoronto.ca
  The academic calendar is published on April 1st of each year, and is in effect for a year. This contains academic policies, list of courses, degree requirements, and program requirements which could change each year. E.g. 2017-2018 calendar was in effect during summer 2017, fall 2017, and winter 2018 sessions. Calendars from previous years can be found on utsc.calendar.utoronto.ca/calendar-pdfs.

- 12 Distinct Credit Tipsheet: uoft.me/12credits
  If you are studying 2 majors or 1 major and 2 minors, use the tipsheet to calculate that you have the 12.0 distinct credits required between your program requirements.

- Degree & Program Planning FAQ page
  Find answers to your questions. (uoft.me/Degreefaq)
Students can complete the degree requirements outlined in the UTSC Calendar in effect during their first or most recent registration at UTSC, or any in effect during the intervening period.

Not sure if you will meet the CGPA requirement? Use the GPA calculator (www.rosi.utoronto.ca/gpa_calculator.php) to calculate the grades you need.

For students who started in 2010 and onwards, the breadth requirement category can be found in the course description. Tip: Search for courses based on their breadth category on utsc.calendar.utoronto.ca/search-courses.

Since program requirements listed in the calendar may change from year to year, it is important to understand which program requirements you can complete.

Enrolled in program prior to April 1, 2013

- HBA, HBSc & BBA programs

  ✓ You can complete any of the program requirements listed in the calendar since the year you were admitted to UTSC.

Enrolled in program since April 1, 2013

- HBA & HBSc programs

  ✓ You can complete any of the program requirements listed in the calendar since you added your program.

  ✓ Changed from co-op to non co-op version of the same program? Complete any program requirements from the year you were admitted to the co-op program.

- BBA programs

  ✓ You can complete any of the program requirements since the year you were initially admitted into the Management specialist program, even if you switch into another type of Management specialist program.

- You can complete program requirements from different calendars for your programs. E.g. 2017-2018 Biology major and 2016-2017 Psychology major requirements.

- Want to know which program requirements would be best? Use the Degree Explorer Planner feature to assess your progress towards completing program requirements from various calendars. Click on the drop-down box to change the year.

- If you choose to follow the program requirements from a different calendar year, inform the Registrar’s office by using the “Contact Us” button in Degree Explorer.

- Credit/No Credit (CR/NCR) courses cannot be used toward your program.

- Planning to take program requirements at other campuses or abroad? Seek permission from your program advisor (uoft.me/programadvisor).

- Do you want to use your transfer credits toward your programs? Seek permission from your program advisor. For further information review uoft.me/utsctransfercredit.

If you need assistance with your academic planning, you can meet with an Academic & Learning Strategist. Check www.utsc.utoronto.ca/aacc for information on drop-in hours and appointments. Please note that students are responsible for tracking their program and degree requirements.
