PROGRAM INTEREST:

Why are you interested in this program? How does this program fit into your plans, goals and/or aspirations? (200 words or less)

Whether you blog, edit digital video, play video games, program JavaScript, or just spend all day texting on your phone – we're interested in knowing more about your use of media and digital technology. What experiences and skills might you bring to this field? (100 words or less)

If there is additional information that you feel we should know, please explain:

In order to be considered for admission to the Joint Program in New Media Studies, you will need to submit an unofficial copy of your transcript. A screenshot of your transcript on ROSI that clearly demonstrates all courses taken at UTSC to date, the associated marks and your overall CGPA will suffice. Please attach the unofficial copy of your transcript to this application.

If we have any questions, we may ask you to meet with us for a short interview. All applicants will be notified of a decision no later than June 1.

Deadline for Applications: May 1
