Why are you interested in this program? How does this program fit into your plans, goals and/or aspirations? (200 words or less)

While a portfolio is not a requirement, it is helpful if the students demonstrate experience with certain softwares, and bring in skillsets as mentioned above. Tell us more about your use of media and digital technology. What experiences do you have that made you want to go into a digital profession? Please reference any of the workshops you have attended at ACM. (200 words or less)

If there is additional information that you feel we should know, please explain:

If we have any questions, we may ask you to meet with us for a short interview. All applicants will be notified of a decision around early-May. We recommend that you check your ACORN regularly as you are required to accept/reject our offer by mid-May.

Deadline for Applications: April 23, 2024

Second round of applications will open only if space permits.

Materials can be sent electronically to acm-pm@utsc.utoronto.ca with “New Media Studies Application” in the subject line. The file name should be labeled with your first and last name, as such "New Media Studies Application_First name_Last name".

As part of the application procedure, you must also request the New Media Studies Joint Program Subject POST on ACORN using the ACORN code SCMAJNME.

Students will be sent an offer on ACORN by early May.

You do not need to upload an unofficial transcript, as long as you have included your student number.
