

THE CENTRE FOR ETHNOGRAPHY UTSC

WINTER 2020
SPEAKERS
SERIES

RETHINKING THINGS

All talks held in UTSC Centre for Ethnography | HL34 | 11am-1pm

“THIS IS VERY OLD’:
The African Art Canon and Market in a Cameroonian Village”

JANUARY 23

Dr. Sylvia Forni

Senior Curator, African Arts and Cultures, Royal Ontario Museum

“A New Ethics of Care of Collections”

FEBRUARY 27

Dr. Cara Krmpotich

Museum Studies, Faculty of Information, University of Toronto

“The Repatriation of Ts'msyen Cultural Heritage”

MARCH 26

Dr. Robin R. R. Gray (Ts'msyen/Cree)

Department of Sociology, University of Toronto

For further information contact donnayoung@utsc.utoronto.ca

The Centre for Ethnography was established in 2007 to foster and promote ethnographic research and writing at UTSC. The Centre for Ethnography hosts an exciting annual speakers series, international workshops, undergraduate methods and research courses, and an annual competition for a fellowship in ethnographic writing. People carrying out ethnographic fieldwork in the Toronto region may affiliate with the Centre for Ethnography while in Toronto, and are welcome to attend our speakers series and other events.

The Centre for Ethnography
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
SCARBOROUGH