As a university student, you have a lot on your mind. Do you want...

- ...to improve your math and stats skills?
- ...to become a better and more confident writer?
- ...effective strategies for improving your academic English?
- ...highly effective, peer-run, weekly study groups for select UTSC classes?
- ...to know why Academic Integrity matters to you?
- ...support for class presentations?
- ...a hands-on course/community placement?

Take your academic skills to the next level!

Survive and Thrive Checklist
Choose what works for you!

- Take the Academic English Health Check diagnostic test (ELDC)

Get help and support through:
- Communication Cafés (ELDC)
- Writing clinics (TWC)
- Math drop-in help sessions (MSLC)

Take a new course/review course material:
- Do an on- or off-campus placement in CTLB03 Introduction to Service Learning
- Take CTLA01 Foundations in Effective Academic Communications
- Try the Online Math Preparedness course (MSLC)
- Use WebOption Lecturecasting to review selected course lectures

Collaborate with peers by:
- Attending Facilitated Study Groups (FSG)
- Working with a writing peer (TWC)
- Signing up for the English Language Development Facilitator Training Certificate program (ELDC)
- Exploring how you might become a peer/facilitator in these programs!

Academic Survival Guide for Students
The Centre for Teaching and Learning

Centre for Teaching and Learning
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
SCARBOROUGH

Flip the page to find out more...
THrive and take your academic skills to the next level!!

English Language Development Centre
- Academic English Health Check (AEHC)
- one-on-one ELD consultations
- workshops & Communication Cafés
- Personalized Academic Reading & Writing (RWE)
- Vocabulary Expansion Accelerator
  uoft.me/eld

Math and Statistics Learning Centre
- online or in-class Math Prep Course
- daily drop-in sessions led by experts
- student centred workshops/seminars
- individual tutoring
- online homework support
  uoft.me/mslc

Service Learning Placements
- on-campus placements with university professors
- off-campus placements with community organizations
- real-world application of your academic knowledge
  uoft.me/slo

Presentation Skills
- workshops
- online resources
- practice sessions
  uoft.me/presenting

The Writing Centre
- one-on-one consultations with tutors
- feedback on your writing before you hand in an assignment
- drop-in appointments
- seminars
- online guides, tools and tipsheets
- writing groups and peer support
  uoft.me/twc

Facilitated Study Groups
- structured, weekly study groups for select UTSC classes
- share study strategies
- compare notes
- strategize for exams
  uoft.me/fsg

You have a lot on your mind. Use these free services offered by the Centre for Teaching and Learning to get yourself to the next level.

Level up here: www.utsc.utoronto.ca/ctl