Message from the Dean

I am very pleased to introduce you to the Facilitated Admission International Recruitment University of Toronto Scarborough (FAIR UTSC) Program. We currently offer this unique admission process to international students interested in applying to and enrolling in one of our 215 undergraduate programs.

Through this innovative admission program, international students will be provided with an opportunity to prepare for success in university studies. The program’s objectives are to enhance English language skills, cultivate creative thinking and develop interpersonal skills for students to excel in scholarly activities and prosper in their future careers. During the eight-week academic and acculturation program in the summer, participants will benefit from an effective learning environment designed to exceed the required English proficiency for participation in an undergraduate degree program at U of T Scarborough.

I encourage you to contact our Department of International Academic Programs and Initiatives to learn more about the FAIR UTSC Program.

Why U of T Scarborough?

The University of Toronto is Canada’s premier university and ranked among the very best in the world.

Located in its most culturally diverse city and nestled in 300 acres of parkland, the U of T Scarborough campus offers world-class facilities, innovative ideas and unparalleled experiential learning opportunities. It is home to the U of T Co-op program, where students have the option of completing up to one year of paid work experience as a part of their degree. U of T Scarborough students develop the skills, knowledge and experience to secure rewarding careers or pursue graduate studies.

U of T Scarborough’s exceptional academic programs and student services consistently attract the best minds from around the world, and international students make up 25% of our first-year class.
What is FAIR UTSC?

FAIR UTSC is an 8-week conditional-offer program that allows academically qualified students to satisfy their English-language proficiency requirement the summer before degree studies begin. The program consists of two parts:

- The Academic Preparation Program which runs from July 3–August 24, 2018 (FAIR UTSC students are expected to arrive at U of T Scarborough on June 25, 2018)
- An on-campus residential experience and program activities

Successful completion of FAIR UTSC with a minimum overall grade of “B” will satisfy the English-language proficiency requirement of conditional-offers to undergraduate degree programs at U of T Scarborough.

2018 FAIR UTSC Fee Structure & Refund Policy

Program Fee: $11,200 CAD*

*The FAIR UTSC program fee can be paid by bank draft to the “University of Toronto.”

Fee Deadline: 10 days after receiving an offer of admission

The program fee includes:

- Academic Preparation Program tuition
- Residence and programming fees
- Health insurance
- Textbooks
- Airport transfer to U of T Scarborough upon arrival at Toronto Pearson International Airport

Refunds: Students who withdraw from FAIR UTSC by April 1, 2018 will receive a refund for the program fee, less $4,000. Refunds will not be issued for withdrawals after April 1, 2018.

If a student’s Canadian study permit application is rejected, the full program fee will be refunded.

Benefits of FAIR UTSC

- Simplified admission process with support from U of T Scarborough staff
- Conditional admission and smooth transition to a world-renowned university, with the ability to satisfy English-language requirements in summer 2018.
- Improved English-language proficiency
How do I apply?

1. Complete the U of T International Application at future.utoronto.ca/apply/applying.

2. Select your program choices. U of T Scarborough offers 215 programs organized into groupings called Admission Categories. You may choose up to three undergraduate admission categories. For a full list, please see utsc.utoronto.ca/admissions/programs.

3. Submit your documents. You will need to submit official transcripts for all secondary and post-secondary studies. Some programs require a Supplementary Application Form.

4. Provide English-language test results. Test results that qualify you for FAIR UTSC conditional admission must be provided:

Students with test scores outside these ranges or with other English-language preparation may be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Students applying from Vietnam, Turkey and the United Arab Emirates (UAE) are exempted from the qualifying English-language test scores if they successfully complete the FAIR UTSC entrance test being held in their country in December 2017 (specific test dates and locations will be released in October 2017).

5. Pay attention to deadlines. Applicants from Vietnam, Turkey and the UAE should ensure their applications and supporting documents are received by November 30, 2017 to be considered for the in-country testing. Applicants from other countries should ensure that their applications, supporting documents and English-language proficiency test results are received by January 19, 2018.

6. Read your offer letter carefully. Offers of admission are conditional and will be re-evaluated upon receipt of final grades. FAIR UTSC students will need to successfully satisfy their English-language proficiency condition through the program. The University reserves the right to amend or withdraw an offer of admission if offer conditions are not met.
