

Teaching-related Professional Development opportunities for Post-Docs: a short intro

Greg Sharzer, Graduate Student Coordinator
Centre for Teaching and Learning

Centre for Teaching and Learning
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
SCARBOROUGH

CTL Resources

- Quercus Tutorials:
<https://www.utsc.utoronto.ca/projects/quercus/>
- Support Guides:
<https://www.utsc.utoronto.ca/projects/quercus/support/>
- Educational Technology portal & guides:
<https://q.utoronto.ca/courses/46670/pages/edtech-catalogue>
- Teaching Assistant Training Program events:
<https://tatp.eve.utoronto.ca/home>
E.g. Preparing your Teaching Dossier:
<https://tatp.eve.utoronto.ca/home/events/936>

CTL Website

The CTL website is transitioning to a new portal with two parts: Faculty and Student Support.

Current homepage: <https://www.utsc.utoronto.ca/ctl/>

Faculty support: <https://q.utoronto.ca/courses/156214>

Student support: <https://q.utoronto.ca/courses/172947>

(Writing, English Language Development, Math & Stats)

Graduate Professional Development

One main series: Graduate Professional Skills, seminars that help develop ‘hard’ and ‘soft’ skills, from Excel and R to mental health and resiliency.

Two conferences: Graduate Professional Day – an annual event where experts from inside and outside UofT share career development tips.

Graduate Networking Event – grads network in-person (or online) with alumni and HR industry experts

Current website: <https://www.utsc.utoronto.ca/grad-edu/utsc-events-graduate-students-and-postdocs>

Experiential Learning

The U of T Experiential Learning Hub:

<https://experientiallearning.utoronto.ca/>

The UTSC Experiential Learning Webpages:

<https://www.utsc.utoronto.ca/vpdean/experiential-learning>

CTL events

All CTL events are listed on our newsletter. To sign up, email Stacey Gibson, Communications & Administrative Coordinator:

stacey.gibson@utoronto.ca