COVID-19 Updates
The University of Toronto continues to carefully assess the global situation, consider the advice of public health authorities, and the health and safety of our community. As this is an evolving situation, please refer to the University’s website for the latest COVID-19 updates and FAQs.

Latest updates to this page:

- March 24, 4:50 p.m.: The UTSC Library is closed as of 6 p.m. on March 24, however computer and internet resources are still available to those needing access.

- March 24, 11:40 a.m.: Updates to Student Affairs are listed below and on this page.

Classes at U of T Scarborough

- Starting on Monday, March 16 and continuing until April 3, all in-person undergraduate and research-stream Masters and Doctoral courses are cancelled. Teaching will continue through other means (which may include existing online platforms).

- U of T Scarborough undergraduate students are NOT required to return to campus for the Winter 2020 session. There will be no in-person exams. Professors will contact students with further instructions on how exams will be delivered for each course.

- Some deadlines and policies regarding drop dates and the CR/NCR option have changed.

- The Registrar’s Office is available remotely to answer questions and assist students to make choices about new options available to them.

Campus services at U of T Scarborough

- Campus remains open with restricted access to certain areas.

- The Academic Advising & Career Centre is available to support students by phone, email, online chat and online appointments.

- AccessAbility Services remains available to support students with disability-related concerns and academic accommodations.
Student can book online appointments with the International Student Centre by email here and the Department of Student Life by email here.

The Registrar’s Office is offering all services online. Financial aid services and front line staff are available to answer questions by email. In-person service is not available until further notice.

The Health & Wellness Centre remains open. Please call – 416-287-7065 – in advance of visiting for health and counselling services.

UPDATED March 24: The UTSC Library is closed, however access to computer and internet resources are still available.

Student Housing & Residence Life remains open for students with exceptional circumstances, however, operations and services have been reduced.

The Toronto Pan Am Sports Centre is closed until Monday, April 6, 2020. Athletics & Recreation staff are available to support students via email.

The N'sheemaehn Child Care Centre is closed until Monday, April 6, 2020.

Staff, faculty and librarians at U of T Scarborough

The latest updates specifically for librarians, staff and faculty can be found on the Human Resources website.

Remote assistance for human resources, payroll and recruitment

Updated March 20: The most up-to-date resources for working and teaching from home can be found on the UTSC-RemoteAccess Sharepoint [UTORid login required]. It includes essential teaching (academic) resources, as well as essential administrative (work) resources.

Mental health support for our community

For students:

- Confidential mental health counselling by online chat or phone is available from anywhere in the world, 24/7, in multiple languages through My Student Support Program (MySSP).
- Same-day mental health counselling by phone can be booked by calling Health & Wellness at (416) 287-7065.

For staff and faculty:

- The Employee & Family Assistance Program (EFAP) is available to employees of the University of Toronto who are eligible to participate in the University’s group benefit programs, and their dependants: spouses, partners (including same-sex partners) and dependent children. It is available 24 hours, seven days a week, 365 days a year.