Implications of Name Changes to a Name Other Than Your Legal Name
- It is the sole responsibility of the student to resolve or deal with issues resulting from a name change request submitted to the University of Toronto. Complications may arise with the verification of credentials and transcripts for job applications, student loans (OSAP/bank loans), taxes (T2202A), professional licensing bodies (law, dentistry, etc.), and applications to other educational institutions. To avoid these issues, we advise you to consider changing your change back to your formal legal name before graduation. You may do so by submitting the form below to the Registrar's Office prior to Convocation, by the name change deadline.

Your University of Toronto Accounts
- You will need a new TCard (unless the request is just prior to graduation)
- UTORid will remain the same as it cannot be changed
- Your U of T email address can be changed at your discretion online at https://www.utorid.utoronto.ca/cgi-bin/utorid/changeemail.pl
