

July 18, 2023

Update to Community Alert sent on July 13, 2023. Updated suspect description included below.

Toronto Police Service (TPS) continues to investigate a reported sexual assault that occurred near 130 Old Kingston Road (located in the Valley Land Trail) last week. It is reported that a female pedestrian was approached by an unknown male and subsequently assaulted. The reported assault took place in the afternoon. UTSC Campus Special Constables are conducting proactive patrols of the area.

Below is an updated description of the suspect.

Updated description of suspect.

The suspect is described as male, white, 20 to 30 years old, approximately 6'4, with facial stubble and light brown to dirty blonde short hair. The suspect was wearing a black t-shirt, khaki cargo pants (possibly capri length) and sandals.

How to get help.

Your safety is important to us. If you need to report an incident or if you are in a situation where you feel unsafe, please contact Campus Safety at 416-978-2222 or 9-1-1 immediately. Other resources available to the UTSC community include:

- The Travel Safer service, which is available 24/7, when travelling on campus. If you would like someone to accompany you, please call The Travel Safer line at 417-287-7022. More information is available at the Campus Safety non-emergency line (416-287-7398) or at utsc.utoronto.ca/safety.
- The Lone Worker service can be reached at 416-287-7398.
- The U of T Campus Safety App, which is a critical resource to support the safety and well-being of our community. It is available for free download at Google Play and the Apple App Store. It integrates with U of T's safety and security systems to help students, faculty, staff, and librarians move more safely on and off-campus.
- The Community Safety Office is a tri-campus service that offers short-term support and assistance to students, staff, faculty members, librarians, departments, and organizational units with personal and/or workplace safety concerns.
- The Sexual Violence Prevention & Support Centre is a tri-campus service that supports students, staff, faculty, and librarians at the University of Toronto who have experienced, heard about, witnessed, or are supporting someone affected by sexual assault, sexual harassment, or other forms of sexualized or gender-based violence. It also provides education and training for individuals interested in learning how to support survivors of sexualized and gender-based violence and build a culture of consent. Confidential and non-judgmental appointments and consultations are available.

Additional support is available to the community through the Healthy Campus Initiative site.