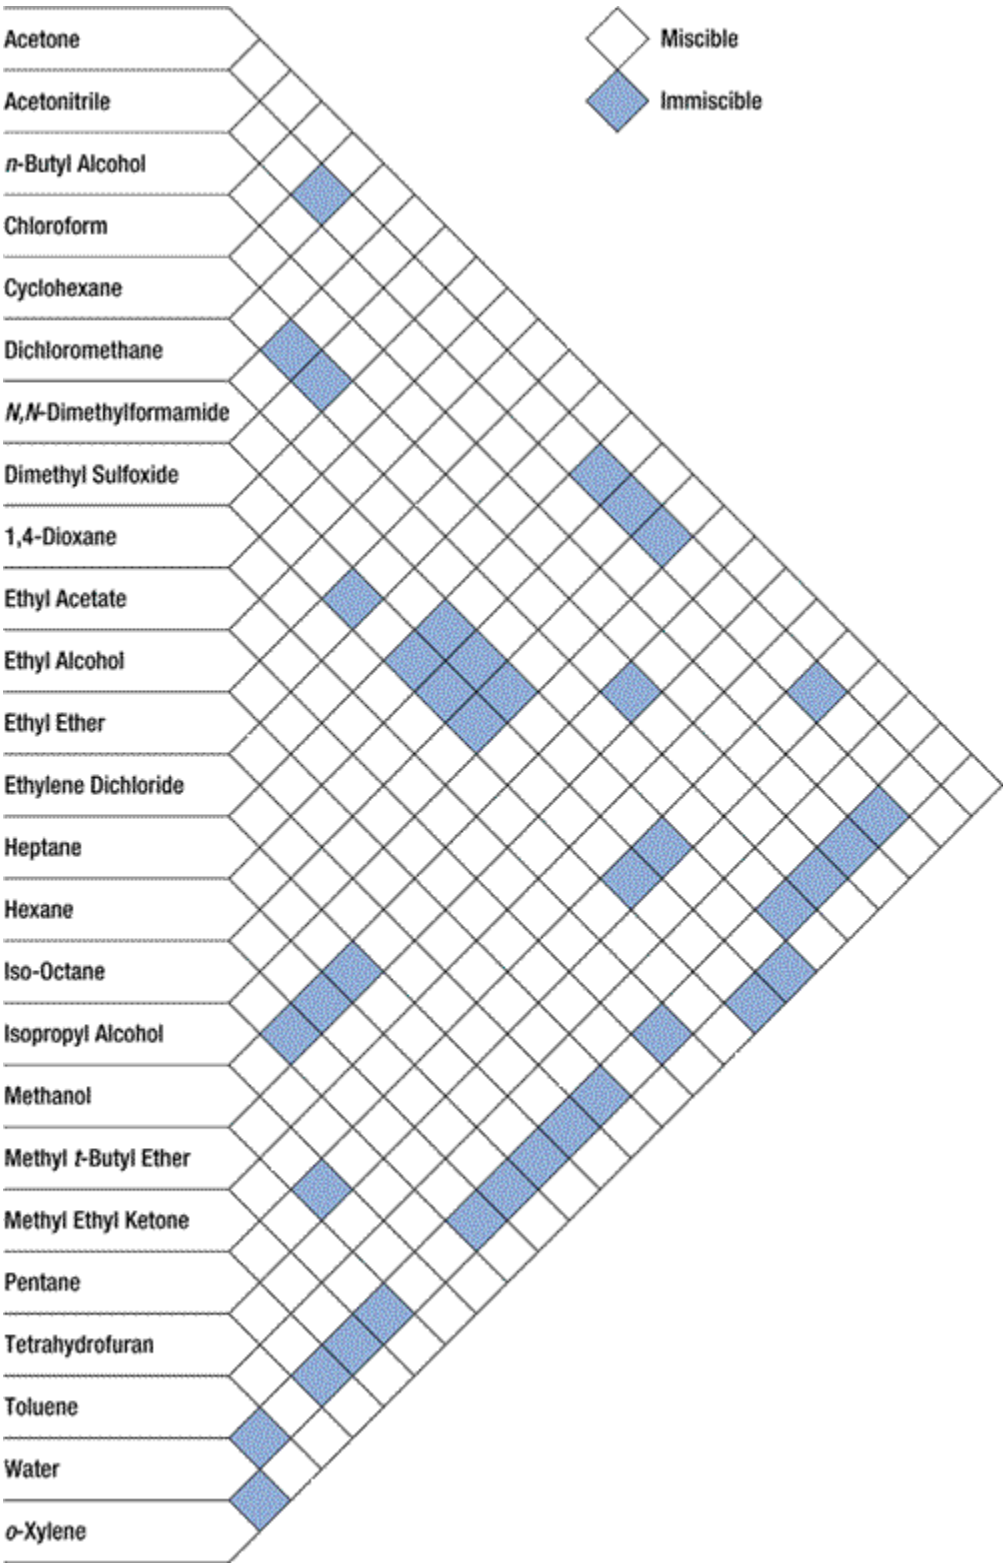
Miscibility


Burdick & Jackson solvents are designated to be miscible if two components can be mixed together in all proportions without forming two separate phases.